The version you received today is our most recent version, approved by PPM. I would incorporate these new edits into that version. Thanks. And sorry for the break from usual protocol.

I can incorporate these, but we need to be careful about version control. I got a different version earlier today for HQ review -- it also had track changes in it. I made edits in that version and provided to Sarah Q for her review. I can combine these two docs, but want to make sure I have the correct version and get that correct version to Joan for surname.

Thanks,
Caitlin

Hi Caitlin-

These edits look fine. I don't know how or if Joan gets things in DTS, but

Shawn and I are in a meeting for much of the day today. Do you mind making these changes and responding to Joan?
